

ABOUT US

Impact Nashville unites women in a common cause. As a women's giving circle, we collectively raise funds to support the unmet needs of Greater Nashville.

We are better together than apart. For most of us, gifts in the $25,000+ range are beyond our individual means. We understand the power created when we combine our contributions to make focused, high-impact grants.

We are equal: One gift. One vote. Everyone gives an equal amount. Everyone gets the same vote on how it's given back to the community.

We give it all. Every dollar of each member's $1,000 donation is awarded to that year's grant recipients.

We are transparent. We work with nonprofit partners to understand the grant process, give feedback on proposals submitted and ensure fairness.

We are smart about Nashville. We enjoy the sense of discovery that comes from learning about our community, its needs and organizations that are working to meet those needs.

We are busy. Those who have time, give it. Those who can't are not judged. We respect that different women have different demands on their time at different times in their lives.

2015-2017 Impact

119 members who have donated $119,000

5 large-grant winners out of 368 applicants

OUR MEMBERS

We are all different. Some of us spend all day in heels and others spend all day in yoga pants. Some of us are just starting out and others are at the top of their game. Some of us donate hours to the grant process and others show up to vote.

But we have a common purpose. We all hope to make a significant difference in our community.

See the quotes below from our members on why they chose to become a member of Impact Nashville.

“I want to cheer on any woman who decides to use her gifts, power, and platform to thoughtfully empower those with less around her. Each of us can change the world if we decide to think about how we live and who we support.”

“As a small business owner, I feel it is my responsibility to support the growth & development of organizations that impact our community.”

“I joined Impact Nashville to be a part of the conversation in the non-profit arena in Nashville and I believe that through my membership I am able to foster and support those non-profits who are doing incredible things in our community.”

“Sometimes it's hard to gauge the impact of our contributions. That's why I was so excited to join IMPACT Nashville. We have a chance to really focus our donations and we'll be able to measure the results of our efforts.”

“Impact Nashville gives me the chance to engage, empower and embrace women of all ages and walks of life in my community.”

“Impact Nashville allows us to strengthen our collective voice and develop powerful new networks that will surely have impact in other areas of our personal and professional lives.”